DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW ENGLAND

Fine Business Block Wiped Out, Causing Loss · of Half a Million.

(By Associated Press.) MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 14.—The destruction to-night of the Kennard, a granite structure considered to be the finest business block in New England, porth of Boston, proved to be the worst fire here in many years, the total loss being half a million dollars.

The Smyth block, on the opposite side, was practically ruined and considerable damage was done to the home of the Derryfield Club, in the rear of the Ken-nard. In the Smyth blocks were two banks and the Park Theatre. The fire started in this block about 3 o'clock on the first floor. At the time the Board of Trade was in session. Every one got out safely. A number of tenants were in their offices to-night and some of them had exceedingly exciting experiences.

The cause of the fire is believed to have been new electrical connections.

he was apparently feeling better than usual. Whether or not he intended to go to the bank is not known.

Awaiting breakfast, he seated himself in a chair in the sitting-room and called for a drink of hot water. He had barely drained the cup and arisen from the chair, probably to place it on a table when he fell forward mortally stricken. Death followed immediately.

Mr. Blunt was a native of Manchester, having been horn there on January 19.

having been born there on January 19. 1848. In a few days he would have been fifty-four years of age. Under his fa-ther, Mr. Thomas Blunt, who was for many years sheriff of Chesterfield county, Mr. Blunt served for some time as denuty Unon the establishment of the State Bank he connected himself with that institution in the capacity of paying teller. After nineteen years he left to become paying teller of the City Bank. This latter position he filled for fourteen years, holding it at the time of his death. He was married some years ago and is survived by his widow and one son, Mr. John B. Blunt, now a student at Cornell University. Young Mr. Blunt has been telegraphed for and will reach here to-night probably.

For a number of years Mr. Blunt had been a prominent and influential mem-ber of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city. He was church treasurer and deacon for about fifteen years and was then made an elder. He was also well known in Masonic circles being a member of one of the lodges of the city. In personal appearance Mr. Blunt was very striking. Tall and with a splendid physique, he measured over six feet and was regarded as a very handsome man. He lived in an unpretentious style ret was well-known and highly regarded in the best circles of the city. Scores of friends and acquaintances will be surprised and grieved to hear of his sudden death.
